Air Quality Forecast for the UK

Issued by the Met Office

Today: Rather cloudy with areas of fog for many central and eastern parts, but air pollution levels are expected to be generally Low on Monday, perhaps with pockets of Moderate near pollution sources.

Tomorrow: Air pollution levels expected to remain generally Low on Tuesday although pockets of Moderate are possible, mainly along the south coast.

Outlook: Wednesday will see an increase of pollution from the continent across much of England and Wales, with areas of Moderate and pockets of High, especially for south facing coasts. Becoming generally Low from Thursday, although isolated pockets of Moderate or even High could linger in South Wales.
